I. WHY DO WE NEED REVIVAL?

- A. Because we sin.
1. I John was written to saved people. He wanted us to know that we do sin.
 2. He wanted us to realize what sin will do to us.
 3. Adultery, drinking, cussing, cheating, stealing, lying, gossip are wrong and sinful.
 4. Failing to attend church, pray, witness, tithe, read your Bible, use your talents are wrong and sinful.
- B. Because we stray.
1. The Lord teaches us to live and walk in life according to His Word—I John 1:6-7
 2. When you are first saved, you are on fire for the Lord and you do not allow anything to hinder.
 3. After a while you find you have strayed far from Him!
- C. Because we are slack.
1. We are to be diligent and dedicated to the Lord and one of His churches—Ephesians 3:21
 2. Teachers, officers and workers can remember how they used to be diligent, but now are slack.
 3. We not pray and study the way we used to, because we are slack.
- D. Because we sleep.
1. The three disciples went to sleep in the garden with the Lord.
 2. The Devil and the World have put Christians to sleep.
 3. It is a job to wake most sleeping people up, when they need to get up!

II. WHEN WILL WE SEE REVIVAL?

- A. When the Spirit convicts.
1. John 16:8
 2. Revival depends on what we do with the Holy Spirit.
- B. When the saved confess.
1. I John 1:9
 2. Text
- C. When the Savior cleanses.
1. God is faithful.
 2. Isaiah 43:25
- D. When the sins are carried away.
