FRESH UPDATE ABOUT MY FAMILY IN SAMAR

A sad news came to us this morning that our house was included in many houses that was destroyed by the TYPHOON Ruby. My mother and other relatives were fine but suffered some injuries. Please Pray for them.

November Report

The Present View of our Church Attendance

Thank you once again brethren for the prayers and support for the mission. Your missionary together with my family working hard and hard consistently for the glory of our master the Lord Jesus Christ.

As of now the building that you rented for our temporary church place is now almost occupied every Sunday. Compared to our previous attendance to our previous church location now our attendance become more than a double from 30 attendance now we are about 60-70 people attending our worship. Last November 16, two families and 3 young people transferred their membership to our church from a Baptist church. Then another family will be joining to our candidate for baptism this coming Sunday December 7. furthermore, more visitors are visiting our church worship every Sunday. Right now we have already 12 men members.

BAPTISM SERVICE

This Sunday December 7, 2014, three (3) souls were baptized and other 4 souls transferred their membership The progress of this mission or church will not be like this without your faith and trust. For now I am no longer need to invite student workers from our seminary to help our ministries because our members were all happy to serve God in His Church. In Music, Bible study, evangelism, campus ministry. As a missionary my duty is to teach them what they need to Know and Do.
