From the Pastor's Heart

WHAT I RECEIVED THE DAY I WAS ADOPTED

(Romans 8:14-17)

The word adoption comes from a Greek word (huiothesia) that simply means to become a son or daughter. I'm so thankful that day that I got saved I was adopted and became a son of the God of Heaven. The Hebrew custom of adoption reveals three things about our spiritual adoption.

1. The adopted child was adopted permanently.
2. The adopted child immediately had all the rights of a legitimate son or daughter.
3. The adopted child lost all rights to their old family.

I. I Received A New Family

II. I Received A New Father

III. I Received A New Freedom

Special Request

Alice Spurlin, the former pastor's wife of Promise Land, will be turning 85 on her birthday, June 25. Barbara is wanting to do something special for her. I know her friends and family would like to wish her well. So, if you would like to send her a birthday card, mail it to Barbara at "Alice Spurlin, c/o of Barbara Jones, 443 Ashley 70 Rd, Hamburg, AR 71646" or just give it to Barbara Jones at church. We would like for her to get 85 cards if possible.
