Happy Mother's Day

From the Pastor's Heart

SEND THE RAIN (I Kings 18:41-46)

Rain in the Bible is a picture of God's blessing and prosperity, in particular for the land of Israel. The only source of fresh water in the land of Israel is the Sea of Galilee which is not capable of supplying enough water to fulfill the needs of the people. Israel was to be dependent upon the heavens to provide sufficient rains. No wonder we see a consistent cry in the Bible for rain.

I. The Purpose Of A Drought

- A. A drought was given when there was apostasy among the people. (I Kings 17: 30-34)
- B. A drought was often a disciplinary testing of God's people in the land.
- C. Israel had endured many droughts throughout scripture. (Abraham, Jacob, and Elimelech.)

II. The Provision During A Drought

- A. God's man experienced the provision of God. (I Kings 17: 5&6)
- B. God's people experienced the provision of God. (I Kings 18:4)
- C. God's sacrifice experienced the provision of God. (I Kings 18:33-35)

III. The Power Of Rain

- A. The authority of rain was given to God's people. (I Kings 17:1)
- B. Rain a symbol of prosperity as result of repentance. (I Kings 18: 39-41)
