From the Pastor's Heart

FACING LIFE'S TOUGHEST DECISION (Romans 6:16-23)

Intro: The toughest decision in life that any person will make is whether to remain lost in sin or to be saved through Christ. Paul declares that mankind will yield (to submit, comply, or surrender) himself to one life or the other. Paul described the decision of life in this manner:

1. We will either be dead indeed to sin or alive unto God through Jesus Christ. (v.11)
2. We will yield our members as instruments of unrighteousness or to righteousness. (v.13)
3. We will live under the dominion of sin or under grace. (v.14)
4. We will be servants of sin or obedient to righteousness. (v.16)
5. We will be servants of iniquity or servants to holiness. (v.19)

- I. The Results of Remaining Lost In Sin (v.20, 21, 23)
- A. A life of sin produces wickedness.
 - B. A life of sin produces wastefulness.
 - C. A life of sin produces wages.

- II. The Results of Being Made Free From Sin (v. 22, 23)
- A. Salvation produces a new position.
 - B. Salvation produces a new passion.
 - C. Salvation produces a new promise.
