

Bruce Jones – 09/10/2014

I was 13 years old & I hadn't done anything real bad, but I was born a sinner like everyone else & realized something was wrong with my life! I remember it was on a Sunday night, I don't remember the exact date, but it was at Calvary Missionary Baptist Church here in Hamburg, Ar. The Pastor was Bro. Thomas Judd! I could hardly wait until the preacher quit preaching & give an invitation so I could walk the aisle & talk to Bro. Judd! I told him I was lost & needed to be saved, so we prayed & I asked JESUS to come into my heart & forgive me of my sins & HE did! The peace & joy that came over me is hard to explain if you've never done it! I am not perfect, I'm a sinner saved by grace thru faith! See it's not what I did, it's what JESUS did! HE died on the cross for all our sins! It's a choice that someone has to make themselves! No one can do it for you! As a child all the way up thru my younger life I was told we went to church on Sunday morning, Sunday night, & Wednesday night!

I never questioned my parents because that's the way it was! When I moved out of my parent's house to move to Little Rock to attend Missionary Baptist Seminary for church music, I wrote my parents a long letter thanking them for the way they raised me, even though I was no angel! They couldn't believe what they were reading from me of all people! I guess with all the whippings I got as a child, I respected & loved my parents! I never said I'd call police on them because I believe it would have been a very bad idea! My last whipping was from my Dad when I stayed out past my curfew till 2am! He informed me of the rules & I abided by them! I learned about how love worked & tried my best to raise our girls that way! Thanks to ALMIGHTY GOD for my parents who loved me enough to whip me, not as much as I needed to be, but enough that I got the message! If your parents are still alive, cherish Every moment with them! They might not be here long! I guess I've said enough! If you're lost & need to be saved, contact me or someone else who can tell you about being saved! I hope it didn't sound like I was bragging on myself because I wasn't! I was bragging on my GODLY parents & GOD, better known as JESUS! Hope someone gets something good out of this! Have a blessed day! I challenge everyone who reads this & wants to give their testimony! JESUS SAVES!!!
